This year is starting off at a fast pace. We had a very productive meeting in Costa Mesa on January 10. The Cal ENA Board of Directors would like to thank the Trauma Committee for bringing their concerns to our attention. The Board of Directors (BOD) encourages anyone to bring issues or concerns to the BOD’s attention so that we can openly address them and provide the transparency our board believes should always be practiced. The BOD will address the Trauma Committee’s concerns in a separate letter that will be available at the March meeting.

There are many projects the state and chapters are working on this year. Leg Day will take place March 19 in Sacramento, please join us as we visit with our state legislators. One issue we will be discussing on the hill will be about workplace violence. Workplace violence continues to be at the forefront of our Government Affairs and Leadership agendas. On average, 12% of emergency nurses are victims of physical violence every seven days, with 42% having been victims of verbal abuse. This week a nurse was verbally assaulted to the point that families in the surrounding rooms were fearful, a security guard was almost strangled by a patient’s mother and a nurse was punched 3 times in the stomach trying to get a urine sample. It is seriously out of control. This particular emergency department has police patrolling it. This violence has caused too much pain and suffering but has also caused fellow colleagues to be concerned on a regular basis for their safety despite increased police presence in the ED. We cannot allow the behavior of a few individuals to ruin lives and careers or our healthcare workers. Jen Denno from the Sacramento Chapter has been working hard with chapter members, the ENA Government Relations Director and the state lawmakers to change the law regarding violence in our Emergency Departments. This might be the year we are able to get the law changed so that an assault on an Emergency Department staff member is a felony. Please take a moment and write your state representative a letter supporting these changes.

The planning for our annual state education event is paying off. The Education Committee is lining up some wonderful speakers as well as vendors. Please save Thursday, August 7 on your calendars to attend the Cal ENA annual education event at Harvey’s, Lake Tahoe.

Costa Mesa Meeting - January 10, 2014

Treasurer Transition - Terri Sturgill resigned as 2014 State treasurer. David Samuelson appointed by BOD as Treasurer to fill in the vacancy. Louise Hummel appointed to the Treasurer-elect position to fill in the vacancy left by David. Tobin Miller appointed as Member-at-Large on the Finance Committee to fill in the vacancy left by Louise Hummel. Chapter and Committee account reports should be submitted to the Treasurer or President-elect quarterly.

Finance Com - reports a 2014 Budget Income of $157,825, Expenses of $182,131, which leaves a deficit of $24,306. A discussion ensued on how to deal with this. We anticipated receiving reduced national membership assessments due to our decision to reduce CA membership fees by $5 several years ago. Things we can do to improve our financial situation include:

- sponsors for State Council meetings;
- support Education Committee’s effort to be self-sufficient;
- ensure a financially successful Tahoe educational event;
- reduce per diem payments for State Council meetings from $75 to $50;
- BOD to receive only one day of per diem per meeting;
- State Council will not fund Delegate Reception at GA for 2014;
- remove fourth day of per diem for General Assembly delegates;
- GA shirts will be purchased for first-time delegates only;
- fund only two representatives to Day on the Hill in Washington, DC;
- chapters will be asked to donate $1.50/member towards ENAF and scholarship funding;
- funding for Emergency Nurses Week will be reduced from $300 to $200/chapter in 2014.

The Committee is already working on these plans. Emails to vendors have been sent out already for the August meeting. Thank you to vendors Grand Canyon University and OBP for helping to sponsor January’s meeting.

⇒ Trauma Com donated $15,000 back to state council!

Marijuana OD Potential for Pediatrics  Jen Denno MSN, RN, CEN

California is one of 18 states with legalized medicinal marijuana. There are no regulations to offer this product in child-proof containers or information for customers to keep the product out of the hands of children. The Green Door in San Francisco offers THC-laced brownies, lollipops, peanut butter cups, caramel popcorn, s’mores, pies, and peanut butter & jelly sandwiches.

A study in Colorado showed 14 visits of pediatric patients with THC overdoses from Oct 2009 to the end of 2011. Eight patients had to be admitted. The most common signs included: lethargy and somnolence but one 5 year old boy developed respiratory insufficiency.

What can you do as an ED nurse?

Be on the lookout for:
- Anxiety, CNS depression, chest pain, coma, dizziness, dyspnea, hallucinations, lethargy, nausea, somnolence, vomiting, and tachycardia.
- Ask parents about drugs that children might have gotten into at home and don’t leave out medicinal marijuana.
- Educate patients with medicinal marijuana to keep products away from children in their home or keep them in locked containers.

Narcan Available for Lay Persons  Jen Denno MSN, RN, CEN

AB 635 was signed by Jerry Brown last October. It allows lay people to buy naloxone (Narcan) to have on hand at home for persons experiencing an opioid overdose. The bill goes into effect Jan 1, 2014. Recipients will be trained in overdose prevention and recognition, rescue breathing, calling 911, and naloxone administration.

This is based on a pilot program that began in 2008 in California and a few other states. Many overdoses do not reach the hospital before it’s too late; this program allowed persons at home to have the ability to reverse the opioid effects and save a person’s life.

The CDC reported 38,329 people died of overdoses between 1996 and 2010, mostly from opiates. In the same time period, 10,000 overdoses were reversed at home with naloxone by trained individuals.

What you need to know as an ED nurse:

Get a good history of how much naloxone was given at home and watch the patient for respiratory depression. Naloxone has a shorter half-life than opiates and may need to be repeated in the ED. Patients may also be on benzodiazepines and require romazicon (flumazenil).

Best States for Traffic Safety  Jen Denno MSN, RN, CEN

A state without a primary enforcement seat belt law covering passengers in all seating positions (front and rear) or that has repealed an existing all-rider motorcycle helmet law within the previous ten years is not eligible for a Best rating, regardless of the number of other highway safety laws it has enacted. States must have 11 to 15 laws including both primary enforcement seat belt laws, or 9 or more laws including both primary enforcement seat belt laws and an all-rider helmet law, to achieve a Best rating.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA—12 laws. Missing nighttime and cell phone restrictions for teen drivers, as well as an ignition interlock law.

ILLINOIS—12 laws. Missing an all-rider motorcycle helmet law, minimum age 16 for a learner’s permit and nighttime restriction for teen drivers.

OREGON—12 laws. Missing minimum age 16 for learner’s permit, nighttime driving provision and age 18 for unrestricted license for teen drivers.

DELAWARE—11 laws. Missing an all-rider motorcycle helmet law, age 18 for unrestricted license for teen drivers, an ignition interlock law, and open container law.

HAWAII—11 Laws. Missing an all-rider motorcycle helmet law, minimum age 16 for learner’s permit, nighttime restriction provision, and age 18 for unrestricted license for teen drivers.

INDIANA—11 laws. Missing an all-rider motorcycle helmet law, minimum age 16 for learner’s permit, nighttime restriction provision, and ignition interlock law.

MAINE—11 laws. Missing an all-rider motorcycle helmet law, minimum age 16 for learner’s permit, nighttime restriction provision, and age 18 for unrestricted license for teen drivers.

RHODE ISLAND—11 laws. Missing an all-rider motorcycle helmet law, nighttime driving provision and age 18 for unrestricted license for teen drivers, and an ignition interlock law.

WASHINGTON—11 laws. Missing minimum age 16 for learner’s permit, nighttime and passenger restrictions and age 18 for unrestricted license for teen drivers.

CALIFORNIA—9 laws. Missing a minimum age 16 for learner’s permit, nighttime, passenger and cell phone restrictions, age 18 for unrestricted license for teen drivers, and an ignition interlock law.

LOUISIANA—9 laws. Missing booster seat law, minimum age 16 for learner’s permit, nighttime and passenger restrictions, age 18 for unrestricted license for teen drivers, and an open container law.

Worst States
The red rating indicates that the following states are dangerously behind in the adoption of Advocates’ optimal laws. States receive a Worst rating if they have fewer than 7 laws, without both primary enforcement front and rear seat belt laws.

SOUTH DAKOTA—Only 2 laws. Missing front and rear primary enforcement seat belt law, all-rider motorcycle helmet law, booster seat law, 6 of the 7 teen driving provisions, an ignition interlock law, a child endangerment law and an all-driver text messaging restriction.

MISSISSIPPI—Only 4 laws. Missing rear primary enforcement seat belt law, booster seat law, 6 of the 7 teen driving provisions, an ignition interlock law, an open container law, and an all-driver text messaging restriction.

ARIZONA—Only 5 laws. Missing front and rear primary enforcement seat belt law, all-rider motorcycle helmet law, 6 of the 7 teen driving provisions, and an all-driver text messaging restriction.

IOWA—Only 5 laws. Missing rear primary enforcement seat belt law, all-rider motorcycle helmet law, booster seat law, 5 of the 7 teen driving provisions, an ignition interlock law, and an all-driver text messaging restriction.

NEW HAMPSHIRE—Only 6 laws. Missing front and rear primary enforcement seat belt law, all-rider motorcycle helmet law, booster seat law, 4 of the 7 teen driving provisions and an ignition interlock law.

NORTH DAKOTA—Only 6 laws. Missing front and rear primary enforcement seat belt law, all-rider motorcycle helmet law, booster seat law, 4 of the 7 teen driving provisions and an ignition interlock law.
